

Presentations with Impact

Objectives

- Improve what you are doing.
- Appeal to the different ways people process information.
- Win by structuring your presentation to provoke the listener.
- Move your audience to action.

We all have to make presentations - be it to our boss, colleagues, current or future customers. Presentations with Impact gives you the tools so you can appeal to any audience.

Advanced presentation allows you to have options to choose from for the right words to resonate with your audience.

Highlights

The following topics are covered in the one-day seminar. Shorter customized workshops can be developed to cover the topics of your choice. Participants leave with the go-to source, Using Your Skills: How to Present with Impact.

- Improving on what you're doing.
- Stage anchors to move people from the present to the future vision.
- Appealing to the main types of people in your audience.
- Key words to use for audience action.
